ISSUE

Board approval is required for the California State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB) mandated update of the SSMP.

On May 2, 2006, the SWRCB approved Order No. 2006-0003, "Statewide General Discharge Requirements for Sanitary Sewer Systems" in an effort to reduce and prevent sanitary sewer overflows.

In July 2007, the Board approved the initial plan and schedule for development of the SSMP. A component of the Order requires updating the SSMP at least every five years. In December 2012, in compliance with the Order, the Board approved the first five-year update. This is the second five-year update.
