

Join the Next Generation of Sewer Science

Phenomenon:

Our wastes go down the drain

Guiding Question:

What happens to our wastes after they go down the drain?

SCIENCE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

FOR MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

June 11 - 13, 2019

8:30 AM - 3:30 PM

Location: Central San Wastewater Treatment Plant in Martinez and Willow Creek Education Center in Concord

Space is Limited

Go to centralsan.org/learn to apply

>>> Features + Benefits

- Gain priority access to Central San's online suite of educational resources
- Get a hands on introduction to new classroom ready NGSS investigations
- Go behind the scenes of Central San's wastewater treatment facilities
- Explore local environmental issues affecting your community
- Receive a $450 stipend for full participation
- Enjoy complimentary breakfast, lunch, and snacks on all three days
- Earn 2 units of continuing education credits (fee paid by participant)

To learn more
Go to centralsan.org/learn

For questions contact: Ben Lavender 925-335-7723
blavender@centralsan.org

